LETTER FROM NEW YORK, NO. 111, 112.

S. W. NEWMAN.

To Your Editor.

BENJAMIN TAYLOR.

Gentlemen:—We are glad to hear of the increased numbers of subscribers to your valuable periodical, the "Liberator," which we heartily recommend to the notice of every friend of emancipation. The success of your periodical, we think, is due to the character of the articles printed in it, and the manner in which they are written. The "Liberator" is not only a means of disseminating information, but it is also a powerful influence for the promotion of the cause of emancipation. We are gratified to hear that your paper is now in great demand, and we have no doubt that it will continue to flourish.
