THE FREEDMEN OF LOUISIANA.
LETTER FROM MAJOR GENERAL BROWN.

My Dear Sir—It is a great pleasure to you and to me personally to have the opportunity of visiting the freedmen of Louisiana. I have not the means to do so except for the fact that I am in the service of the United States.

Your obedient servant,

Abraham Lincoln.

THE EXAMINATION CELEBRATION IN NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, Jan. 30, 1861.

Last Monday (Jan. 23) was held in the Hall of the French Hospital, a celebration in honor of the freedmen of Louisiana. It was well attended, and the speeches were made by various persons of eminence, including the famous Frenchman, M. de la Rive. The speeches were well received, and the celebration was a great success.

The French Hospital is located near the center of the city, and is well known for its charitable work. It has a large number of students, and is well supported by the wealthy citizens of the city.
