LETTER FROM MRS. L. M. CHILDS

120 Temple St., New York, March 7, 1865.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "LIBERATOR":

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to forward to you a letter from one of the most distinguished citizens of the State of New York, Mr. L. M. Childs, who has been appointed by the Governor of the State as one of the commissioners to superintend the execution of the Emancipation Proclamation. The letter is addressed to Mr. Childs, and is as follows:—

"Mr. Childs, you are hereby appointed by the Governor of the State as one of the commissioners to superintend the execution of the Emancipation Proclamation. You are directed to take immediate steps to effectuate the provisions of the Proclamation, and to report to the Governor at the earliest practicable time the results of your labors."
THE LIBERATOR.

MARCH 24.

Mrs. Loring and her children, who had been absent for some time, arrived in this city on Monday, March 20th. Mr. Loring, it is said, will take his family to Europe in the spring. The Loring family is well known in this city, and the children are esteemed by all who know them. The Loring children are all of fine appearance, and are said to be well educated. Mr. Loring is a man of considerable means, and is much respected.

THE SCHOOLS.

Mr. H. H. Arms, who has been for some time a school teacher in this city, has resigned his position, and will shortly leave for the West. Mr. Arms is a man of ability, and is well liked by the pupils and the parents. He is greatly regretted by the schools.

THE WORKERS' UNION.

The Workers' Union met in its usual place on Monday evening, March 20th. The meeting was well attended, and was conducted in a most orderly manner. The object of the Union is to promote the interests of the working classes, and to secure fair wages and good working conditions. The meeting was adjourned.

THE ARTS.

The annual exhibition of the Art Union was held in the art gallery on Tuesday evening, March 21st. The exhibition was well attended, and was conducted in a most successful manner. The works of art were of various kinds, and included paintings, drawings, and sculptures. The exhibition was adjourned.

THE SCIENCE.

The meeting of the Science Association was held in the lecture hall on Wednesday evening, March 22nd. The meeting was well attended, and was conducted in a most successful manner. The object of the Association is to promote the study of science, and to secure the advancement of knowledge. The meeting was adjourned.

THE LIBRARY.

The annual meeting of the Library Association was held in the meeting house on Thursday evening, March 23rd. The meeting was well attended, and was conducted in a most successful manner. The object of the Association is to promote the study of literature, and to secure the advancement of knowledge. The meeting was adjourned.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1864.

The annual meeting of the Tribune Association was held in the meeting house on Friday evening, March 24th. The meeting was well attended, and was conducted in a most successful manner. The object of the Association is to promote the study of literature, and to secure the advancement of knowledge. The meeting was adjourned.

THE SCHOOL.

The annual meeting of the School Association was held in the meeting house on Saturday evening, March 25th. The meeting was well attended, and was conducted in a most successful manner. The object of the Association is to promote the study of literature, and to secure the advancement of knowledge. The meeting was adjourned.