THE DUTY OF ABOLITIONISM

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 28, 1856.

"The abolitionists have been thoroughly discredited by the recent election. The peace party, under the leadership of Mr. Clay, has proved to be the stronger. The anti-slavery party, under the leadership of Mr. Lincoln, has proved to be the weaker."

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 2, 1856.

"The recent election has shown that the abolitionists have no chance of success. The peace party, under the leadership of Mr. Clay, has proved to be the stronger. The anti-slavery party, under the leadership of Mr. Lincoln, has proved to be the weaker."
