PEACE BUILDING AT LAST.
On a recent visit to the free soil capital of the North, Mr. Seward, the Secretary of State, said that the struggle for peace was at last coming to an end. He remarked that the people of the South were anxious for peace, and that the North was also eager for a cessation of hostilities. Mr. Sew-ward stated that the United States Government was willing to make concessions to the South in order to achieve peace. He further said that the abolition of slavery was a necessary condition for peace, and that the South must give up this evil institution if a lasting peace was to be attained.

THE LIBERATOR.

PEACE BEFORE THE VOTE?

Extending its arms in a Northern smile to the South, the United States Government declared that it was willing to make concessions to the South in order to achieve peace.
However, the South must first give up its slavery. The United States Government was willing to make concessions to the South, but the South must give up its slavery if a lasting peace was to be attained.

J. A. SARGENT.

GEORGE CRANK.

THE SOUTHERN FREEMAN.

While it is true that the United States Government is willing to make concessions to the South in order to achieve peace, it must not be forgotten that the South must also give up its slavery. The United States Government is willing to make concessions to the South, but the South must give up its slavery if a lasting peace was to
be attained.

GENERAL MEANS IN BOSTON.

We are glad to learn that the illustrations of the Boston Public Library have been published. The illustrations are of great value in illustrating the text of the book. We are glad to learn that the illustrations have been published.

STATE POLITICS.

The State of Pennsylvania is characterized by a strong Republican party. The Democrats, however, are strong in some of the western counties. The Republican party is supported by the
northern counties, and the Democratic party
by the southern counties.

WHERE WE CAME FROM.

The state of Pennsylvania is
characterized by a strong Democratic party. The Republicans, however, are strong in some of the western counties. The Democratic party is supported by the
northern counties, and the Republican party
by the southern counties.

A HUNDRED MILES.

A Richmond correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes:

THE BLACKS IN RICHMOND.

There are many blacks in Richmond, and they are treated with great kindness. The blacks are supporting the government, and they are working hard to make the city a success.

724