A PRAYER TO BE UTTERED.

The following prayer was delivered in the Senate of the United States, by Senator Sumner.

O God, who madest us an links of one another, and interwoven as in a web, that what the lip of man may utter, or the mind of man may conceive, may be done in the spirit of love, and at the bidding of thee, who art the source of all light, and the maker of all beauty; grant that we may be true to thee, and to each other, and to our country.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

I have been told that the Southern states are now at war with the world. I have been told that the Southern states are now at war with God. I have been told that the Southern states are now at war with the universe.

The crisis department at Cincinnati.

The Editor.

For the Liberator.

To the Editor of the Liberator.

Dear Sir:

I am informed by a gentleman who was present at the anti-slavery convention in Cincinnati, that the crisis department at that place is in a state of irregularity, and that the convention has not been able to take any decided course on the subject of the proposition for the organization of a national anti-slavery society. I am also informed that the convention has not been able to arrive at any definite conclusions on the subject of the proposed national anti-slavery society, and that the convention has not been able to take any practical steps towards the formation of such a society. I am therefore, with great regret, forced to conclude that the convention has not been able to arrive at any definite conclusions on the subject of the proposed national anti-slavery society, and that the convention has not been able to take any practical steps towards the formation of such a society.

I am, with great respect,

Your obedient servant,
