THE LIBERATOR.

September 23, 1860.

LETTER OF SENATE SIMON E. WINTHROP AND H. H. FLANDERS.

Dear Sirs:—I am to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of September 11th, and to express the pleasure of the Senate in your appointment as their Secretary. In reply to your request, I beg to say that the Senate have no objection to the appointment, and that they desire you to enter upon the duties of the office without delay. The Senate also desire that you, during your absence, should be placed in communication with the President of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, in order that your official business may be properly transacted.

I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

S. W. H. F.

BOSTON, September 15th, 1860.

THE LIBERATOR.

September 23, 1860.

LETTER OF HON. J. F. WHITTEMORE.

My dear Sir:—I am to inform you that the Senate have no objection to your appointment as their Secretary. They desire you to enter upon the duties of the office without delay, and that you, during your absence, should be placed in communication with the President of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, in order that your official business may be properly transacted.

I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

J. F. W.

BOSTON, September 15th, 1860.

THE LIBERATOR.

September 23, 1860.

LETTER OF HON. J. F. WHITTEMORE.

My dear Sir:—I am to inform you that the Senate have no objection to your appointment as their Secretary. They desire you to enter upon the duties of the office without delay, and that you, during your absence, should be placed in communication with the President of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, in order that your official business may be properly transacted.

I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

J. F. W.

BOSTON, September 15th, 1860.

THE LIBERATOR.

September 23, 1860.

LETTER OF HON. J. F. WHITTEMORE.

My dear Sir:—I am to inform you that the Senate have no objection to your appointment as their Secretary. They desire you to enter upon the duties of the office without delay, and that you, during your absence, should be placed in communication with the President of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, in order that your official business may be properly transacted.

I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

J. F. W.

BOSTON, September 15th, 1860.

THE LIBERATOR.

September 23, 1860.

LETTER OF HON. J. F. WHITTEMORE.

My dear Sir:—I am to inform you that the Senate have no objection to your appointment as their Secretary. They desire you to enter upon the duties of the office without delay, and that you, during your absence, should be placed in communication with the President of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, in order that your official business may be properly transacted.

I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

J. F. W.

BOSTON, September 15th, 1860.

THE LIBERATOR.

September 23, 1860.

LETTER OF HON. J. F. WHITTEMORE.

My dear Sir:—I am to inform you that the Senate have no objection to your appointment as their Secretary. They desire you to enter upon the duties of the office without delay, and that you, during your absence, should be placed in communication with the President of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, in order that your official business may be properly transacted.

I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

J. F. W.

BOSTON, September 15th, 1860.