The Liberator - September 20, 1850

LETTERS FROM NEW YORK, N.Y.

ALEXANDER H. STEVENS.

The President's recent message to the Senate and House of Representatives, has, in the main, been but a repetition of the views long before expressed by him, and under similar circumstances, with little or no new facts or arguments. It is, therefore, submitted to those who have the confidence of the people, to seek and prepare for such arguments against the opinions of the President, as, in their judgment, will meet and satisfy the public.
