THE LIBERATOR.

Our Country is the World, our Countrymen are all Mankind.

Vol. XXXV. No. 42. Boston, Friday, October 20, 1865. Whole No. 1811.

Selections.

The President and His Policy.

When the men of '60 had each opportunity fo...

Plain Talk to the Republicans.

Judge March, the President of the New Jersey. To...

Mother's Thanksgiving.

Securing the landing and safety of our dear...

The Times.

A newspaper of the right sort has long been...
THE LIBERATOR.
BOSTON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1865.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Hon. Charles Sumner, of Boston, was recently in Washington, and on his return to Boston addressed the following letter to the editor of the "Liberator":

"Dear Sir: Having been in Washington, I am glad to report that the Senate has passed the bill to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia. The bill was passed by a vote of twenty to fifteen, and is now before the House. I hope it will be passed by the House, and that the President will sign it. I believe it is a step in the right direction, and I hope it will be followed by other measures to abolish slavery in the Territories."

The editor thanked Mr. Sumner for his kind words, and expressed his belief that the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia was a great step forward.

THE POKER AT CINCINNATI.

The poker game at Cincinnati is in full swing, and the players are more than ever engrossed in the game. The prizes are very large, and the players are willing to risk everything to win them. The game is said to be very exciting, and the players are said to be very skillful.

THE POOR AT RICHMOND.

The poor at Richmond are in a very difficult position. The city is in ruins, and the people are suffering from hunger and cold. The government has tried to help them, but the resources of the government are limited. The people are said to be very poor, and the situation is very critical.

THE FINANCIAL CRISIS.

The financial crisis is still in full swing. The banks are in a very difficult position, and the government is trying to help them. The government has tried to borrow money, but the lenders are unwilling to lend it.

THE EDUCATION QUESTION.

The education question is still a matter of great controversy. The government is trying to establish a public school system, but the states are不愿意 to cooperate. The government is trying to get the states to cooperate, but the states are不愿意 to cooperate.