THE LIBERATOR
Vol. XXXV. No. 50.
BOSTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1865.
WHOLE NO. 1819.

SELECTIONS.

DESTRUCTION OF THE PRESIDENT.

The charge of the destruction of the President is

Destruction of the President.

the one of the most numerous branch of the

the Constitution.

We are now on the eve of the

the Constitution.

We are now on the eve of the

the Constitution.

We are now on the eve of the

the Constitution.

We are now on the eve of the

the Constitution.
THE LIBERATOR.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1865.

THE LAST QUARTER.

The Liberator is now in its last quarter, prior to the end of its publication. It is not only desirable, but it is the natural and proper course of events to bring the paper to a conclusion, and thereby to be free from the necessity of further and extended publication.

It is to be hoped that the Editor of the Liberator will continue to publish the paper, and to carry on the work that he has begun. The paper has been a great and useful instrument for the abolition of slavery, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to be so.

The Editor of the Liberator has just returned from a visit to the West, and is preparing to leave for the East. The paper is to be published in the West, and is to be published in the East.

THE ABOLITIONIST.

The Abolitionist is a weekly paper, published in Boston. It is to be noted that the Editor of the Liberator is the same as the Editor of the Abolitionist.

The Abolitionist is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

There are many points of view from which this discussion of the relation of the states to the federal government may be viewed. It is to be hoped that the Editor of the Abolitionist will continue to publish the paper, and to carry on the work that he has begun. The paper has been a great and useful instrument for the abolition of slavery, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to be so.

The Editor of the Liberator has just returned from a visit to the West, and is preparing to leave for the East. The paper is to be published in the West, and is to be published in the East.

The Editor of the Abolitionist is the same as the Editor of the Liberator. The paper is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

The Abolitionist is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

EDINBURGH NEWS.

We have, very directly, from Edinburgh, that effect has come to an end. The paper is now in its last quarter, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

The Liberator is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

The Abolitionist is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

The Edinburgh News is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

THE LIBERATOR.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1865.

THE LAST QUARTER.

The Liberator is now in its last quarter, prior to the end of its publication. It is not only desirable, but it is the natural and proper course of events to bring the paper to a conclusion, and thereby to be free from the necessity of further and extended publication.

It is to be hoped that the Editor of the Liberator will continue to publish the paper, and to carry on the work that he has begun. The paper has been a great and useful instrument for the abolition of slavery, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to be so.

The Editor of the Liberator has just returned from a visit to the West, and is preparing to leave for the East. The paper is to be published in the West, and is to be published in the East.

THE ABOLITIONIST.

The Abolitionist is a weekly paper, published in Boston. It is to be noted that the Editor of the Liberator is the same as the Editor of the Abolitionist.

The Abolitionist is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

There are many points of view from which this discussion of the relation of the states to the federal government may be viewed. It is to be hoped that the Editor of the Abolitionist will continue to publish the paper, and to carry on the work that he has begun. The paper has been a great and useful instrument for the abolition of slavery, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to be so.

The Editor of the Liberator has just returned from a visit to the West, and is preparing to leave for the East. The paper is to be published in the West, and is to be published in the East.

The Editor of the Abolitionist is the same as the Editor of the Liberator. The paper is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

The Abolitionist is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

EDINBURGH NEWS.

We have, very directly, from Edinburgh, that effect has come to an end. The paper is now in its last quarter, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

The Liberator is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

The Abolitionist is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.

The Edinburgh News is to be continued, and will be published in the West, and in the East.
THE LIBERATOR.

DECEMBER 15.

[Column text]

THE MODERN AGE.

[Column text]

[Note: The image contains text from the December 15, 1860 issue of The Liberator, a newspaper that was published from 1831 to 1865. The content includes articles, editorials, and political commentary of the time.]

[Note: The text is a historical document and may require background knowledge to fully understand its context and implications.]